Fractura

End User License Agreement — Desktop + Web Commercial License

Version 1.1 · 23 November 2026 · €89, one-time payment

Please read this Agreement before downloading, installing or using Fractura. In short: one user, up to two computers, commercial desktop use including client work and logos, and webfont use on one domain. Sharing the font files is not permitted. The full terms below apply.

1. Definitions

"Licensor" means Chezarit Mattie, R. Alfredo de Magalhães, 83, 4000-063 Porto, Portugal, chezaritmattie@gmail.com, the designer and sole rights holder of Fractura.

"Licensee" means the one natural person named in the order. Where a company or studio pays for the license, the license is granted to that one named person only.

"Font Software" means the Fractura typeface, version 1.1, in the styles Light, Regular, Medium and Bold, supplied as OpenType (.otf), TrueType (.ttf) and Web Open Font Format 2 (.woff2) files, together with any updates the Licensor supplies under this Agreement.

"Output" means any image, document, print, video, physical product or other work created with the Font Software, in which the font is not supplied as installable, extractable or editable font data.

"Domain" means one registered website domain and its subdomains (for example, example.com and shop.example.com), owned or controlled by the Licensee.

"Payhip" means the online platform through which orders for the Font Software are processed and paid.

2. Acceptance and order of documents

By completing a purchase, or by downloading, installing or using the Font Software, the Licensee accepts this Agreement. If the Licensee does not accept it, the Licensee must not download, install or use the Font Software.

This Agreement is the entire agreement on its subject. If it conflicts with the README, the product page or any other summary, this Agreement prevails. Any further rights must be agreed in writing by the Licensor.

3. License grant

3.1 Subject to payment of the license fee and compliance with this Agreement, the Licensor grants the Licensee a worldwide, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable and perpetual license to use the Font Software as set out below.

3.2 The license is for one user, who may install the Font Software on no more than two computers owned or controlled by that same person. The installations may not be used by different people.

3.3 The Font Software is licensed, not sold. The license covers the version supplied at purchase; updates, new styles or extended character sets are supplied at the Licensor's discretion.

4. Desktop use

4.1 The Licensee may install the OTF or TTF files and use them to create Output, for commercial and non-commercial purposes, including: branding and visual identity; logos and wordmarks; print and editorial design; packaging; posters and advertising; static digital graphics and social media; presentations; rendered video and motion graphics; and merchandise or physical products on which the typeface appears as part of the design.

4.2 Logos and trademarks. The Licensee may use Fractura in a logo or wordmark and may register that logo or wordmark as a trademark. This gives the Licensee no rights over the Font Software or its design. The license is non-exclusive: the Licensor may continue to license Fractura to others, including for logos.

4.3 PDF documents. The Licensee may embed the Font Software in PDF files, as a subset where possible, only to allow those files to be viewed and printed, and not to allow the text to be edited in the font.

4.4 Client work. The Licensee may create Output for clients and deliver it as final, non-editable artwork, such as outlined vector files, flattened images, print-ready PDFs or rendered video. Clients receive no right to install, extract or use the Font Software. A client who wants to install or use the Font Software needs its own license.

5. Webfont use

5.1 The Licensee may self-host the supplied WOFF2 files and serve them to visitors' browsers through CSS @font-face to display text on one Domain.

5.2 The Licensee must take reasonable steps to stop the WOFF2 files being downloaded for reuse, such as not linking to them directly or listing them publicly. Normal browser caching is permitted.

5.3 Additional domains, microsites on other domains, client websites and websites for third parties each need a separate license. The Licensee must not create webfonts from the OTF or TTF files.

6. Uses that need a separate license

- additional users, or installation on more than two computers;
- more than one Domain, or websites for clients or third parties;
- embedding the Font Software in apps, games, software, e-books, operating systems, firmware, hardware or devices;
- editable templates, customisation tools or products for resale in which end users can type with the Font Software;
- any other use not expressly permitted by this Agreement.

Requests for additional licenses may be sent to the contact in Section 15.

7. Restrictions

The Licensee must not:

- sell, rent, lend, sublicense, share, publish, upload or otherwise make the Font Software available to any other person, except as allowed in Section 8;
- modify, adapt, convert, rename, reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble the Font Software, extract its outlines or create derivative font software from it, except where mandatory law allows it;
- use the Font Software, its outlines or its glyphs to create, train, test or fine-tune any machine-learning or artificial-intelligence model or dataset;
- remove or change any copyright or licensing information in the Font Software;
- use the name "Fractura" for any other typeface or font product;
- use the Font Software in any way that breaks the law or infringes the rights of others.

8. Printers and production suppliers

The Licensee may give a printer or production supplier temporary access to the Font Software only when this is strictly necessary to produce Output commissioned by the Licensee. The Licensee must make sure the supplier uses it only for that job and deletes it afterwards. Where this cannot be ensured, the Licensee must supply outlined or rendered artwork instead. A supplier, client or collaborator does not become a Licensee by receiving artwork or temporary access.

9. Intellectual property

The Font Software, its design, outlines, name and related materials are the intellectual property of the Licensor and are protected by copyright and other laws. All rights not expressly granted in this Agreement are reserved by the Licensor. Credit is not required; where the Licensee gives it, it should read “Fractura by Chezarit Mattie” and must not suggest endorsement by the Licensor.

10. Price, payment and taxes

10.1 The license fee is €89, paid once, or the price shown at checkout when the order is placed. There is no subscription and no automatic renewal.

10.2 Orders are processed and paid through Payhip. For sales to customers in the European Union and the United Kingdom, Payhip acts as reseller for value added tax (VAT) purposes: where VAT applies, Payhip calculates it, collects it at checkout and remits it to the tax authorities. The final amount payable, including any VAT, is shown at checkout before payment.

10.3 The order confirmation and receipt issued at checkout are the Licensee’s proof of purchase and proof of license. The Licensee should keep them and provide them on request.

11. Delivery, right of withdrawal and refunds

11.1 The Font Software is supplied as a digital download, made available immediately after payment.

11.2 If the Licensee is a consumer in the European Union or the United Kingdom, the Licensee has a right to withdraw from the purchase within 14 days. This right is lost once the download has started, if the Licensee has given express prior consent to immediate supply and acknowledged that the right of withdrawal is lost, as permitted by Directive 2011/83/EU and the national laws implementing it. Where that consent has not been given, the statutory right of withdrawal applies.

11.3 If a file is missing, damaged or does not work as described, the Licensor will replace or correct it on request. This does not affect any remedies the Licensee has by law for digital content that is not supplied or does not conform.

11.4 Outside the cases above, the fee is not refundable once the Font Software has been downloaded.

12. Warranty and liability

12.1 The Licensor warrants that the Licensor has the right to grant this license. Otherwise the Font Software is provided “as is”, and the Licensee is responsible for checking that it works with the Licensee’s software, systems and workflow.

12.2 To the extent permitted by law, the Licensor is not liable for any indirect or consequential loss, including loss of profit, business, data or opportunity, and the Licensor’s total liability under this Agreement is limited to the fee paid for the license.

12.3 Nothing in this Agreement limits or excludes liability that cannot be limited or excluded by law, including for fraud, wilful misconduct, or death or personal injury caused by negligence, and nothing affects the statutory rights of consumers.

13. Term and termination

13.1 This Agreement starts when the Licensee purchases or first uses the Font Software and continues indefinitely unless terminated.

13.2 If the Licensee breaches this Agreement and the breach can be remedied, the Licensor may give written notice and the license ends if the breach is not remedied within 30 days. If the breach cannot be remedied, including any unauthorised sharing or distribution of the Font Software, the Licensor may end the license immediately by written notice.

13.3 When the license ends, the Licensee must stop using the Font Software and delete all copies in the Licensee's control. Sections 7, 9 and 12 continue to apply after the license ends.

14. General

14.1 The Licensee may not assign or transfer this license without the Licensor's written consent.

14.2 If any provision is found invalid or unenforceable, the rest of this Agreement remains in effect. A failure or delay in enforcing any provision is not a waiver of it.

14.3 This Agreement is written in English. If it is translated, the English version prevails.

15. Governing law, disputes and contact

15.1 This Agreement is governed by the laws of Portugal. The courts of Porto have jurisdiction, without prejudice to any mandatory consumer protection that gives a consumer the right to the law or the courts of the consumer's country of residence.

15.2 Consumers in Portugal may also use an alternative dispute resolution entity. Information is available at www.consumidor.gov.pt.
